

The background is a vertical collage of various images. At the top is a stream with green foliage. Below that is a purple starry sky. In the center is a teal circle containing palm trees and a central orange and yellow flower with a small globe in its center. Below the teal circle is a purple starry sky. At the bottom is a blue and orange nebula. The text is overlaid on the top left and bottom left.
